

YOU + ME

A MULTI-YEAR MARRIAGE JOURNAL

This marriage journal is intended to help you see the progress of your marriage over time and can become a treasured keepsake.

How to:

1. Print pages 3-6 each time you're ready for a new set
2. Tape or glue a photo (or other memory) into the scrapbook frame
3. Fill out the questionnaire
4. Write a letter to your spouse
5. Repeat every month (or as often as desired)
6. Bind or otherwise put together the book.
7. Gift to your spouse and look back at the memories together

Everfect

Copyright Coriaria, LLC

DATE:

A large rectangular frame with a double-line border and chamfered corners, intended for a drawing or illustration. The frame is composed of two parallel black lines. The corners are cut at a 45-degree angle, creating a beveled effect. The interior of the frame is empty, providing a space for a drawing or illustration.

QUESTIONS

- 1. What is the best thing about marriage?
- 2. What is the hardest thing about marriage?
- 3. What is your favorite memory since last time?
- 4. What was the most difficult trial since last time?
- 5. What is one thing you are grateful for about your spouse?

- 6. What do you think will be the same by next time?

- 7. What do you think will be different by next time?

- 8. What do you think life will be like at your next anniversary?

- 9. What do you think life will be like 5 years from now?

- 10. Any other thoughts about your marriage at this time:

Dear _____,

Love Always,
